

Vintage Carving Set – Knife and Fork from BARON, Solingen, Germany

New, never used, in original box.

$128.00

BARON Solingen was in business from post WW2 to about 1960 and is believed to have created the success Solingen knives have enjoyed ever since.

This set consists of a knife and fork.

Knife: Bavarian blade with deep etched hunting topics. Stag horn handle.

Fork: Matching “HIRSCHKRONE” stag horn handles on fork.

Superb quality carving set of German Cutlery.

Baron Solingen Stainless Steel

ID R4300C

This rare set consists of a carving knife and fork with deep etched hunting topics on knife blade.

Marked: "Baron Solingen" "Stainless Germany"

Carving Knife is 12 3/4" long.

Fork is 11" long

Brand new. Never used. The blade appears flawless. No scratches on pieces or chips or cracks on handles.

This carving set will last a lifetime.

It is in its original box; box shows very few storage marks.

Only one set left in stock.

Please see pictures.

Original box

Carving set

Matching stag horn handles on each knife and fork

Set of knife and fork

Attractive hunting topics etched on blade

Carving set crafted by the premier knife makers in Solingen, Germany.

I am happy to combine shipping. Please see all my other items!